Klan Leader Jailed

ATLANTA—Ku Klux Klan leader Sam H. Bowers Jr. of Laurel, Miss., convicted in a case involving three killings, has been jailed without bond.

District Attorney Jim Finch of Hattiesburg, Miss., said a murder indictment returned Monday against Bowers, Klan Imperial Wizard, will keep him in jail at least through his murder trial, scheduled early next year.

The indictment is for the Jan. 10, 1966 killing of Negro civil rights leader Vernon Damer.

Bowers already has been sentenced to 10 years in prison for conspiracy in the 1964 lynching of three civil rights workers in Neshoba County, Miss., but has been free on appeal bond.
